

The following things should reflect in your assignment.

- 1) Introduction and economic interpretation should be in own words
- 2) The graphs (x- and y axis) should be labelled properly and they should have the proper numbering system.
- 3) Proper format should be followed in terms of font size, line space, title etc.
- 4) Numbers should be rounded properly
- 5) Numbers should be either in absolute or in percentages and it should be indicated.
- 6) Tables should have the proper format as well proper numbering system
- 7) References should be given properly wherever it required.
- 8) Questions should be elaborated properly rather than answering in a single word.
- 9) Pages should not be half empty (i.e. a report should look a report only but not like a rough paper).
- 10) Report should have the contents and page numbers.
- 11) There should be an overall conclusion.